

PSCA HANDBELLS

HOMESCHOOL HANDBELLS -

Have fun while learning beginning handbell techniques and music-reading skills. Tuition for 12-week for semester is $80.00. Classes run Tuesdays, Feb. 2 - Apr. 27, no class Mar. 30. Perform in PSCA Spring Concert Thurs. evening, Apr. 29. Need 8-15 students for class; first 15 with paid $25 deposit will be enrolled. (NEW STUDENTS registering for spring semester MUST already have basic note-reading ability, since we continue concepts from fall semester. Also, if they are not already in one of PSCA's choirs, they'll need to pay a small rental fee for a performance outfit).

TOUCH OF BRONZE - Ministry throughout the community is our purpose, so faithful attendance at rehearsals and performances is required.

Eleven classes and 3-4 performances, Mondays, Jan. 25 - April 26, and PSCA Spring Concert Thurs. evening, Apr. 29 (no class Mar. 29). Performances will be arranged for the end of the semester on Mon. nights or weekends.

Tuition $75.00 per semester. Audition/interview required.

Deadline to sign up for spring semester is Jan. 11, 2010.

Director, Patti Cota, is a credentialed music teacher with a BA from Bethany Bible College, Santa Cruz and a Master of Music Education degree from CSUF. She has taught handbells for 27 years, has taught instrumental and choral music in public and private schools, has accompanied (piano) school and church choirs, and is a published arranger.

Contact Patti Cota

pacota@sbcglobal.net

or 261-1766